“National District of Character”

Saturday, September 11, 2021

Dear Festival Attendees,

I would like to thank each and every one of the bands, their directors, and parents for supporting our 9th annual marching festival. Our hope is that this festival provides an educational experience for the students within a competitive environment. The students on the field today have put in tens of thousands of hours in preparation for today and we appreciate you supporting them.

Today’s festival will showcase bands from Missouri, and we welcome each of them to Seckman High School. As you watch the performances, we ask that you please be courteous to those around you and be enthusiastically supportive of the musicians and performers on the field. Please limit all talking during performances, including in our concessions area, and do not enter/exit while bands are on the field. The Seckman Band Parent Organization has provided concessions for attendees and appreciates your patronage. If you are from the area, please take time to review our sponsors’ advertisements and consider supporting them as well.

The judges for today’s festival have been assembled from some of the top music educators, performers and instructors in the Midwest and they are looking forward to providing great feedback for our bands.

Once again, thank you for supporting the annual Jaguar Pride Invitational!

Sincerely,

Benjamin Middleton
